

Advocatus Dei

Los Perdidos

Single · 13 November 2025 · Advocatus Dei
Genre: Gothic Rock / Dark Wave · UPC 7333483370333

Following their debut album "Eiszeit" and the atmospheric single "Land", Advocatus Dei return with "Los Perdidos" - the first glimpse of their second album "Nein" (December 2025). The single captures the spirit of classic gothic rock - raw, dark, and imbued with melancholy and intensity.

A special depth unfolds through the collaboration with El Gurú, the charismatic singer of the Argentine band Amáutica. His distinctive voice gives "Los Perdidos" emotional weight and enriches the sound of Advocatus Dei with a passionate, unmistakable nuance. The band is proud to have El Gurú on board for this project.

The release includes two versions of the song: the original - pulsating, dark and full of energy - and the Lost Mix, a more spherical interpretation that feels reduced and spacious, with guitars and drums stepping back to make room for atmosphere and emotion.

Released: 13 November 2025
