

Advocatus Dei

Nein

Album · 19 December 2025 · Advocatus Dei
Genre: Gothic Rock / Dark Wave · UPC 7333483375994

"Nein" - that's the title of Advocatus Dei's second album, and it sets an unmistakable artistic tone: uncompromising, direct, and carried by an intense atmosphere.

Following the pre-release single "Los Perdidos", which showed the band's versatility through their collaboration with El Gurú, singer of the Argentine band Amáutica, Advocatus Dei now present themselves at a new creative peak.

The album opens with "Sonne" - a powerful, atmospheric opener where synthesizers, driving electronics and a striking guitar hook come together. "Bathory" breathes the spirit of classic gothic rock - dark, hypnotic and club-ready, as if projected straight from the 1980s into the present.

The band also shows itself at times punky and raw, just like in their early days - in the spirit of the early Advocatus Diaboli demo tapes from the 1990s. Tracks like "U" and "Morgenlicht" surge forward with immediate, unpolished energy. The title track "Nein" stands as a stark statement - determined, melancholic and unmistakably their own.
