Golden Apes – "The Highest Point"

"From the highest point to the deepest vale..."

These words not only open "The Highest Point," the latest single from Berlin's Golden Apes, but also encapsulate the song's sweeping emotional and sonic journey. From its panoramic, ethereal introduction to the raw, guitar-driven intensity of the verses - before returning to moments of quiet reflection - the track masterfully navigates every corner of the band's musical landscape.

Hovering synthesizers, sharp-edged guitars, and dynamic rhythms intertwine with rich, atmospheric textures, creating a hauntingly beautiful fusion of melody and melancholy.

Marking the path toward their upcoming album, set for release in 2026, "The Highest Point" stands as a shimmering Post-Punk/Darkwave gem - offering a compelling glimpse of what's to come.

ABOUT GOLDEN APES

Golden Apes were founded in Berlin in 1998 around Peer Lebrecht (vocals, keyboards) and Christian Lebrecht (bass); the name refers to Nietzsche's Also sprach Zarathustra.
From Stigma 3:am (2000) to Kasbek (2019), which marked their twentieth year, and Our Ashes At The End Of The Day (2024), the band built a substantial catalogue of gothic rock and darkwave. For their 25th anniversary, more than 20 artists recorded Golden Apes songs for Scattered Light (2023). The latest album, The Sun Came Up Tremendously, was released on 18 September 2026 by Icy Cold Records.
